Hello everyone, a very short newsletter to advise you of two upcoming events (Armistice Day - 11th November and our Christmas Function - 2nd December) and a very kind, member only offer, from Chorus (our principal sponsor) for a free 2019 Calendar.

We will produce a fuller newsletter later in November which will include recent events we held for Women's 125 years suffrage commemoration (September) and The Relevance of Archives in the 21st century (October). For life members and current paid up members, your copy of our latest issue of The Onslow Historian - The story of KATE will be posted to you shortly.

Upcoming events

Armistice Day Display - Sunday 11 November 1pm - 4 pm at KATE

Onslow Historical Society will be open at KATE, displaying photographs relating to WW1. These are from the Society's archive collection collated by Judy Siers and John Wilson from our committee. Some have already appeared in our journal The Onslow Historian and our book The History of the Northern Suburbs but others will be presented to the public for the first time.

Judy Siers and John Wilson will be on hand to welcome visitors and members to share family war time experiences and to bring their own records and stories.

General NZ information about the Armistice can be found here <https://ww100.govt.nz/armistice-history>

Christmas get-together – Sunday 2 December 2pm - 4pm at KATE

Please join us to celebrate the upcoming festive season with a “High Tea”.
